

Paperback

The image shows a stylized illustration of an open paperback book. The book is oriented vertically, with the spine in the center. The spine is a bright orange color and features the word "Paperback" written vertically in a bold, blue, sans-serif font. The pages are depicted as light gray, layered sheets fanning out from the spine. The front and back covers are a dark brown or olive green color. The entire illustration is set against a plain white background.
