

An open cardboard box is shown from a three-quarter perspective. The box is light brown or tan. The top flaps are open, revealing a bright yellow interior. Inside the box, a brown glass bottle lies horizontally, partially obscured by two clear glasses and white foam packing peanuts. The word "FRAGILE" is printed in large, bold, black, italicized capital letters on the front panel of the box. The box sits on a white surface, casting a soft shadow to the right.

FRAGILE
