

THERE IS NO LIMIT TO THE VARIETY

I am a lot more anxious to have you understand the method and create your own forms than to copy mine. But copying mine now will get you started.

Always construct the head from the cranium down. There is no other satisfactory way. You can see by now that the position of the ball determines the pose of the head. The pieces you build on determine the character.