

From Cold Chicago to that cold cell in the Syrian regimes prison

Hi Bassel

You may not remember me we never met but your arrest is a personal issue for me as Mandela once said

Those who bear witness to the humiliation of another human and dont feel humiliated are not free men

The Syrian regime is insulting all of us by arresting people like you Apart from that have you ever met my friend Hussain Ghaur? If you ever meet him in your prison, please pass him my greetings as well Be well because we all wait for you
