

Robinson Crusoe lived on the island twenty-eight years. Then an English ship came. Robinson Crusoe and Friday went on board the English ship. The ship spread its great white sails, and took Robinson Crusoe back to his own country.