

4th of July
Special Numbers
Out Next Sunday.
The Journal's
Color Supplement

EDITION FOR GREATER NEW YORK.

NEW YORK JOURNAL

AND ADVERTISER

Memble's Goods,
How they Spend the 4th
Color Supplement
Next Sunday

NO. 5,340.

Copyright, 1897, by W. B. WOOD.—NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY JUNE 30, 1897.—14 PAGES.

PRICE ONE CENT

YESTERDAY several different persons positively identified the man whose severed body lies in the morgue. It was William Goldenupp, a rubber in the Murray Hill building.

He promised to get even, even if he had to kill the interloper, so the bathhouse people say. And there was another man who had a long standing.

Oh, Equally Goodness That He Is the...
The Man's Story; Monday...
Monday...

and he was born. He had not gone to the bath for the night yet. I had to go into the bathroom there and left them here to the dining room. You see...

As soon as the night men were off duty they were taken to the morgue. One of them they were Miss Tom. And...