

STOP

The word "STOP" is rendered in a very thick, black, hand-drawn style font. Each letter has a rough, irregular outline and several small, teardrop-shaped drips hanging from its bottom and sides, giving it a sense of being made of a thick, dark liquid like tar or paint.

SMOKING

The word "SMOKING" is rendered in the same thick, black, dripping font style as "STOP". The letters are bold and blocky, with a rough, textured appearance and multiple drips hanging from the bottom and sides of each character.
