

Honorary A.S.S.

Membership

This certificate entitles _____ to an one year honorary membership in A.S.S. Also known as, The American Society of Slackers.

Awarded for your complete laziness and inability to lift a finger. Also for your amazing ability to "delegate" work. Or, in others words, tricking others to do your work for you.

When people ask you "Are you working hard or hardly working?". You can proudly and ironically say "I am working hard at hardly working."

Congratulations at a good job not done.
