

КА-ВЛАМ!

A comic book illustration of an explosion. The central focus is the sound effect "КА-ВЛАМ!" written in large, bold, red letters with thick black outlines. The text is set against a background of stylized, billowing yellow and white smoke or fire. Scattered throughout the scene are several red, five-pointed stars of varying sizes, suggesting impact or shrapnel. At the bottom of the image, there are red, diagonal motion lines, further emphasizing the explosive nature of the event. The overall style is classic comic book art with bold lines and a limited color palette.
